Do you, or does anyone in your household, have a financial or employment interest in any healthcare related business?:

No

Should the state be advertising and otherwise promoting the vaccine using taxpayer dollars? Why or why not?:

NO. The COVID vaccine is experimental. Additionally, there are no long term studies available. These are private companies that are making billions on this vaccine and tax payers should not be funding their advertisements/marketing campaigns.

Should the new legislature re-elect or replace current leadership?:

Replace current leaders

Did ADH and ABC have authority to issue the mask-related fines to small businesses last year?:

No

Should the legislature force ABC and ADH to return the mask-related fines collected last year?:

Yes

What is your position on SB 730 (the Garner bill)?:

For

What is your position on SB 731 (the Ballinger bill)?:

For

What is your position on SB 732 (the Blake Johnson bill)?:

For

What is your position on SB739 (the Hammer bill)?:

For

Do you believe the state has to respect and otherwise enforce unconstitutional federal mandates? At what point does state sovereignty apply?:

Our congressional representative's should be fighting this in the halls of Congress! "Unconstitutional" is the key word - my answer is state sovereignty (according to the 10th Amendment/Bill of Rights) applies to all things not otherwise specified in the US Constitution.

Are you, or is anyone in your household, a public school teacher or otherwise employed by a public school?:

No

Do you believe that CRT, or some form of it, is currently being taught in Arkansas schools?:

Yes

What is your position on CRT?:

Neither CRT nor CRT-like curriculum should ever be allowed to be taught to our children - period.

What is your position on school choice? If you support it, what form do you support (e.g. complete choice, limited vouchers, choice limited to other public schools)?:

I am for school choice but the "right mix" depends on the geographical location as to which approach will work best - leave it to the parents and local authorities to determine the best approach.

Should any abortions be legal in the state of Arkansas?

Please explain.:

I'm Pro-life. I am in agreement with President Trump, as I have always stated, that I think abortion is only acceptable in three situations: in case of rape, incest, and when the life of the mother is at stake.

Are you in favor of the concept of limited government, and do you commit to support the Republican Party platform as written?:

Yes, 100%

Do you support reducing / eliminating the state income tax? If so, what process would you support to accomplish it (e.g. gradual reduction, drastically cut state government, increase sales or property tax)?:

I support lower taxes at every level of government. At the federal level, I think the Trump tax cuts were appropriate and need to be continued.

Have you accepted (or would you accept) money from Tyson, Walmart, the state chamber, or the hospital lobby?:

No

What bill should the legislature pass immediately to do the most good for Arkansans?:

At the federal level, we need to immediately secure our border to stop the flow of illegal drugs, and to fix the broken immigration system. Additionally, we need to control spending via a balanced budget amendment, and we must approved term limits for all members of congress.

Why did you choose to run specifically for this office and not another one?:

My national security expertise and leadership skills are best applied in the US Congress were there appears to be a huge shortage. We can do better than our current congressman and I intend to be a strong voice for the people of Arkansas.

On which legislative committee are you most interested in serving, and why?:

The House Armed Services Committee and the House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence and the Ways and Means Committee.

What is your top priority once in office?:

Replace the Speaker with a real conservative member, finish the "wall" on the southern border.

Is there anything else you would like to share?:

I am a combat veteran who has risked my life many times over the past 40 years to uphold the promise of freedom for all whose who believe in our God given rights. Those of us who believe in the America First agenda must take a stand now or we could very well lose our country. I am taking a stand and I am looking for other patriots to join me in order to Make Arkansas Great Again!
