Re-Open Arkansas endorses
Doc Washburn for Governor of Arkansas

Throughout 2020 and 2021, our freedoms were under attack. The citizens of Arkansas were force-masked; many were force-jabbed; and life-saving medications were denied. Through his daily radio show, Doc Washburn stood with the people of Arkansas, constantly advocating for our freedom. His opponent was fundraising out of state. When we assembled on the state capitol steps to protest vaccine mandates and other governmental overreach, Doc Washburn stood with us. His opponent was too busy campaigning. When his company gave him an ultimatum, Doc Washburn stood by his principles and deeply held beliefs; he gave up his livelihood in order to maintain his freedom. His opponent was still fundraising and campaigning while endorsing RINOs for re-election. Since 2014, Doc Washburn has been advocating for conservative principles, arguing for lower taxes, fighting against abortion, and speaking with everyday Arkansans about the issues that matter to them. His opponent seems to have been everywhere but Arkansas.

Doc Washburn decided the people need a choice in the governor's race, and we strongly agree. Not only is Doc a choice, but he is exactly the person we need to reform state government and return power to the hard-working taxpayers of Arkansas. Arkansans would be most fortunate to elect Doc Washburn as their next governor. Reopen Arkansas exuberantly endorses Doc Washburn for Governor of Arkansas.
